

ENGINEERING OF PAINTING SYSTEMS (PRODUCTS AND PROCESSES)

Expert advice on painting techniques

Your expectations

- get the best treatment solution for your parts
- make an existing system evolve or implement a new painting line satisfying your specifications in terms of performance and costs and observing environmental standards

Our solutions

Total or partial implementation of a “general painting” plan

- advice and support for choosing the best paints according to your product specifications
- characterization tests (physico-chemical and aging tests) according to international standards
- technical and economical study for parts painting, specifications, audits for assessing your current installation with improvement recommendations
- workshop acceptance
- environmental diagnosis of painting line according to current regulations

Your benefits

- a team of specialists dedicated to painting issues and able to analyze materials, parts or processes
- advanced specific means: wet and powder painting platform, physico-chemical analysis laboratory